Management Discussion and Analysis

INDIAN ECONOMY OUTLOOK

After witnessing the uncertainty and jolts in the global economy in 2009-10, the positive economy developments at the start of 2010 are giving promising signs of improvement for financial year 2010-11 and mitigating the effects of recessions suffered during the 2009-10.

The Indian economy does give optimistic signals with recognizable GDP growth. Importantly, it can be expected that sectors like IT, cement, steel and other service sectors like banking and infrastructure will see upward growth.

Overall corporate earnings in India for 2010 is on the path of recovery in the last 4 - 6 quarters, but experts still have doubt regarding the strength and sustainability of recent growth, since the growth is not commensurate by sufficient capital expenditures.

Further, the sustainability of growth will be highly influenced by the optimism of Foreign Investors in the Indian Economy, one can afford to be positive on this front due to confidence shown in Indian economy by various international agencies from time to time like World Bank etc.

But the shadow of doubts are still wandering on the Indian Economy due to its dependency on good monsoon, high inflation, pressure on interest rates, raising fiscal deficit, lack of commitment and political will power on disinvestment by Indian Government.

History of our Company

Our company was incorporated on 28th April 1999 by Mr. Prahlad Rai Chamaria, Mr. Bijay Kumar Garodia and Mr. Santosh Kumar Bajaj and commenced its production on 1st April 2001.

Since then the Company has achieved significant growth, the turnover of the company have increased around 6 times from 1890.58 Lakhs during Financial Year 2001-02 to Rs. 11294.09 Lakhs during Financial Year 2009-10.

Present and Future Strategy

At present our plant is situated at Debendra Nagar, Jhoombasti, Badarpurghat, Assam, initially its installed capacity was of 300 TPD of cement, subsequently company undertook various expansion and modernization plans from time to time which increased the installed capacity to 600 TPD of clinker and 750 TPD of cement.

Future expansion and modernization strategy

Encouraged by good demand for cement in North Eastern Region, your company is now planning to renovate and upgrade the existing facilities, which will enable the Company to increase the installed capacity to 700 TPD of clinker and 850 TPD of cement, for which approximately Rs.2200 Lakhs of funds are required, out of which Rs. 200 Lakhs are to be financed through internal accruals and remaining Rs. 2000 Lakhs are to be financed by way of Rupee Term Loan from Banks and Financial Institutions. The IDBI Bank Ltd. has sanctioned the entire term loan to the Company for the said expansion plan.

Products of our Company

Your company is presently manufacturing various Grades of OPC (Ordinary Portland Cement) and PPC (Portland Pozzolana Cement).

- (a) OPC is produced by inter-grinding clinker, performance improver and gypsum in a cement mill. Portland cement is a blend of finely pulverized clinker, produced by burning at high temperature material containing lime, alumina, iron and silica in pre determined proportion to give the desired end proportion. Normally Gypsum or its derivatives are added during grinding stage for set control. When mixed with water alone or in combination with sand and stone, it has the property of combining slowly with water to form hard mass.
- (b) PPC is blended cement produced by adding pozzolonic materials, such as fly ash, volcanic ash and calcined clay to clinker. PPC can be used for the majority of construction projects, such as in the building of houses, high-rise buildings and bridges. The production process for PPC is similar to that for OPC, but fly ash, the pozzolanic material which is generally used, is mixed with clinker in the cement mill stage of manufacturing.

INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

The Indian Cement Industry is the second largest producer of cement in the world comprises of 140 large and more than 365 mini cement plants which produces various grades of cement like Ordinary Portland Cement (OPC), Portland Pozzolana Cement (PPC), Portland Blast Furnace Slag Cement (PBFS), Oil Well Cement, Rapid Hardening Portland Cement, Sulphate Resisting Portland Cement, White Cement, etc.

During 2008-09, total cement consumption in India stood at 178 million tonnes while exports of cement and clinker amounted to around 3 million tonnes. Since cement industry works in strong nexus with other industries like real estate, infrastructure, transport, coal etc. this makes Cement Industry an important sector for Indian Economy. This is supported by the fact that cement industry is one of the major contributors to the exchequer by way of indirect taxes.

Cement production during April to January 2009-10 was 130.67 million tonnes as compared to 115.52 million tonnes during the same period for the year 2008-09 and dispatches were estimated at 129.97 million tonnes during April to January 2009-10 whereas during the same period for the year 2008-09, they stood at 115.07 million tonnes.

The reasons for such encouraging growth of Indian Cement Industry was mainly due to growth in demand in various ancillary sectors like real estate, increased investments in infrastructure by both the private sector and Government, and higher Governmental spending under various social programmes. With demand growth being buoyant and capacity addition limited, the industry posted capacity utilisation levels of around 93% during the last five years.

Cement Industry suffered a setback in 2008-09 due to economy slow down, but still the growth in cement demand remained at a healthy rate of 8.4% which is expected to raise at 12.5% , reason for such upward trend is growth in consumption during the first eight months at all-India level and the growth in consumption in the major cement-consuming States over the last five years.

Future Outlook

Growth in domestic cement demand is expected to remain strong, given the revival in the housing markets, continued Government spending on the rural sector and the gradual increase in the number of infrastructure projects being executed by the private sector. The trend in demand growth seen during the last five years is expected to continue over the medium term. Also, with Government targeting over 8% GDP growth rate, consequently cement demand is also expected to grow in next few years.

Consolidation in Cement Industry

The Industry has undergone rapid technological upgradation and growth, and now, some of the Cement Plants in India are comparable to the world's best operating plants in all respects. In recent years, the process of consolidation has occurred in Cement Industry.

Impact of Union Budget 2010-11 on Cement Industry

- Government's focus on infrastructure development which accounts for about 25% of the total cement consumption in the country.
- Increased allocation to programmes like RAY and IAY and also extension of interest subvention scheme on housing loan likely to boost the housing demand in semi-urban and rural areas which will augur well for the cement industry.
- Hike in excise duty will increase the prices of cement by about Rs. 3-5 per bag across different regions.
- Imposition of Clean Energy Cess on coal will have a very negligible impact on the cost structure of cement companies.

Relaxation of Prime Minister's Rozgar Yojana (PMRY) Norms for the North Eastern Region

The Prime Minister's Rozgar Yojana has been expanded in scope to cover areas of horticulture, piggery, poultry, fishing, small tea gardens etc. so as to cover all economically viable activities in the North Eastern Region. This tends to increase government expenditure on infrastructure and consequently increase in the demand of cement.

RISKS AND AREAS OF CONCERNCoal

The increase in coal prices is directly co-related with economic scenario of the country. If the economy and growth rate boom, coal prices will also tends to increase and vice -versa. Further, cost of coal is a major concern due to crude oil price hike and other global factors.

Transport

The increased cost of transportation due to rise in fuel and freight cost has become a matter of concern as it has the effect of increasing the overall cost of the cement, which would have the impact on the overall profitability of our Company. However, due to better realization of finished product, we would be able to offset the same against the increased cost.

Market and Competition Risk

The Company may face growing/new competition from existing players and new entrants. The Cement business is highly competitive within geographical regions.
